JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: After a few weeks of getting to know each other, John and Joe were foolin around in Joes studio when they decided to make a full length CD. They started jamming every night, then distilled those jams into the musical expressions of the moods of a day. A.M. Suite evokes the warmth of a summer sunrise and the energy of preparing for a new day. Awakening reflects the lazy, post-coital emergence from the sheets. Midday is a chance to play hooky, to escape, while Afternoon Suite is full of the smugness of a day well spent (and maybe a little afternoon delight). Sundown is time for reflection, time to re-energize for all that still lies ahead. Twilight is the sweetness of uninterrupted time to hang with your baby till Lullaby lures you back to bed to explore the beauty of each others bodies. Dreamstate drifts into alternate realities and universes and Astral completes the musical day with floating electric guitar. John Sherry is a superb guitarist, singer, songwriter and composer. He has released two solo albums, two CDs with The John Sherry Group and has a string of credits as a commissioned composer for theatre and film. He has twice placed as a finalist in the VH-1 Song of the Year songwriting contest. Some of his chief influences on guitar are Jimi Hendrix, Jeff Beck, and Eric Clapton. C. Joe Goughs brilliant percussion and keyboard work provides the glue and spicy accents to Harmonic Convergence. Joe is a well-known art photographer who lives on the Central Coast of California.
