Insightful songwriter... powerful, bouncy voice that you can hang onto for a sweet ride through a fistful of melodic pop music hooks and folksy rock. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: What makes a performer special? The ability to empathize through a well-turned lyric, the talent for writing an effective hook, a connection with an audience projected from the stage, and a sense of purpose and passion in an artists' music are all qualities possessed by those who are able to make the transition from musician to performer. New Jersey's Kathy Phillips has shown that possessing all of these qualities is endearing to fans and critics alike. Her debut album, Sway (Black Potatoe Records), released in late 2001, was recognized by The Courier News with nods for Best Female Artist and Best Song for her smooth, polished sound, a graceful connection between pop, rock and folk. Phillips has been proving herself to be a compelling musical force in the NJ/NY metro area. With a powerful, yet smooth vocal style and an inviting live stage presence, Kathy's intimate ballads and infectious melodic hooks set you on a journey of emotion and honesty. As a New Jersey native, she has performed musically throughout the tri-state region and has been showcasing her original songs in various configurations from piano and acoustic guitar duos to a full 5-piece band. "SWAY", produced by Matt Angus, is a collection of beautifully cathartic songs, with expressive lyrics, heavenly melodies, gorgeous harmonies and excellent musicianship by many of New Jersey's finest players such as Anthony Krizan (Spin Doctors, Lenny Kravitz), John Ginty (Robert Randolph and the Family Band, Jewel, Matthew Sweet), Kim Williams, John Davies, Matt Angus Tom Nelson of Angus, Dave Becker, folk singer/songwriter Gregg Cagno, and NJ jazz guitarist, Walt Bibinger.
