Details: Shahram is an Internationally known singer. He comes from a family of artists and entertainers. His parents played music in Cabaret Miami. Shahram studied Music Art in school where he learned to play the piano and clarinet and also received instruction in singing. At the encouragement of his colleagues and friends, he decided to pursue singing professionally. His debut came with the Dooset Daram' and Hello, Hello albums. He gained notability with Do Khatte Movazi, and a bit later with Sangdel, he garnered attention of the mature listeners. He has lived in Los Angeles since 1985. His first album in the United States was Tobeh. A year later his second and third albums, Sabr and Yeki Yekduneh, brought him fame. These albums earned him the epithet "A Sound Over All Sounds". Shahram's position as an established singer has been now well cemented. Reportedly, he is a top choice singer for several Persian record companies. His most artistic albums are Doa and Hedieh, both of which he presented to his fans in return of their love and support. With Shah Gol, he became known as the "hero" of Iranian pop music. His sister Shohreh Solati is also a singer. He maintains a strong professional relationship with her and the two have collaborated on a few albums. Particularly in Panjareha, both were critically acclaimed. In July 2009 he was signed by Power Records, Inc. and his latest Album, PARVAZ, has reportedly broken all time records.
