If you want to feel the power of God listen to this CD and hear the Anointing that GOD has Blessed him with. 5 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: The Bio of Tewaine wicks, sr. When this Kankakee, IL native begins to sing you will experience the passion he has for music and understand his gratitude for the gifts that God has bestowed upon him. The anointing is always present whenever you are a part of the audience. His melodic voice captivates audiences of all ages. Tewaine started singing at a young age as a member of the Fair Haven Church of God and Christ Choir. His talent became evident to many listeners and he learned to enjoy illustrating and sharing his gift. Music is very much a part of Tewaines daily life. He began to develop his skills while attending Kankakee High School where he performed in show choir, musicals, and solo competitions. After high school he chose to make a career of singing and performing for local and national R&B audiences, which lead him to the World Famous Apollo Theater in New York. Although Tewaine started his career performing R&B tunes, years passed, and he experienced a call from God. He immediately, returned to his home church to begin a new life doing the work of God. While ministering to God's people as one of the praise and worship leaders, God spoke to him about recording a gospel CD. Tewaine entered the studio and started writing and recording original songs for his new audience. Experience his new CD entitled My Commitment, with song like: Do You Love Him, Fully Committed, and No Doubt About It. It is his hope that as you listen to this CD you will feel the anointing and receive the message that God has given him to share with you.
