A true story of transformation: intriguing, humorous and irreverent! An entertaining real life adventure which takes place in the US during the tumultuous sixties. As the protagonist zig zags across the US in his bid to obey his conscience and dodge being drafted by the US Army, the reader travels with him. Through this fascinating true tale readers come to understand what created the hippy phenomenon and why a generation rallied in protest against their government. Crafted in a fast paced humorous style, readers take a trip through the sixties without leavin' the farm!
