Christian/pop/R&B 9 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover

Details: Amy Cooley has been singing since the age of three. At the tender age of seven, she started singing solos in church. She went on to singing in the Middle School Chorus and High School Showchoir. Her senior year of high school, she placed 1st chair soprano in the Tennessee All-State Choir. She has had the honor of singing at Centrifuge-Panama City, Showstoppers -Disney World, opening for the Nashville Symphony Orchestra, being a featured soloist in the Middle Tennessee Mass Choir, and many other showcases. Amy has also led praise and worship for revival services at many different churches, been the D.A.R.E. To Keep Kids Off Drugs role model speaker and singer, and been a featured original artist for South Jackson Goes Gospel. She began writing songs at the age of twelve..... and that's where the dream began. Today, Amy is married to Curtis Cooley, who is also a musician and songwriter. Together, they have two children - Auston and Micah. In 2004, Curtis and Amy began their journey on the album, "From the Soul." Through much hard work, patience, faith and prayer, Amy is excited to announce the release of her new album, "From the Soul." All of the songs will touch your heart. Amy has even written a song on her new album to raise awareness and give honor and courage to women with breast cancer. The song is titled, Hell See You Through. Curtis and Amy are also trying to raise awareness about precious children in the foster care system. They are currently in the process of adopting through this system. Their testimonies will touch the deepest part of your heart. Amy and her family's desire is to, now, travel around the United States to different churches and conferences and share the gift of music. Amy's desire is to bring people of all backgrounds, races, and denominations together, and see lives changed through her music ministry.
