Darkwave Trip Hop with haunting female vocals 14 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trip Hop, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: Hungry Lucy began by chance in 1998 when War-N Harrison (Fishtank No.9) was asked to contribute to a Depeche Mode Tribute. War-N asked vocalist/lyricist Christa Belle to record vocals for the song Blue Dress. The couple found they worked so well as a team that they began writing together and Hungry Lucy was born. The first fruit of this labor was "Bound in Blood" [now considered a Hungry Lucy classic]. After writing and recording a handful of songs, War-N Christa decided to put them up on MP3 and the emails began to flood in from around the world! Pleasantly surprised by all the positive feedback, Hungry Lucy embarked on a full-length CD. Autumn, 2000 saw the release of Hungry Lucy's debut CD, "Apparitions" that received amazing response worldwide. People really responded to the combination of pop song structures, trip hop grooves and Christa's enchanting vocals and other-worldly lyrics. Hungry Lucy continued exposing themselves very tastefully with a number of compilation and tribute CD appearances. This only fed the fire and Apparitions continued to sell better than ever. Still, the fans wanted more, and more they got. HL delivered with the debut live performance in San Francisco, a licensing deal with Belgian label Alfa Matrix and subsequent European release of Apparitions:Revisited in Fall of 2001. In Spring and early Summer of 2002 Hungry Lucy hit the stage in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Cleveland and even out in the Indiana woods! These live performances gave the public a real audio-visual treat with Hungry Lucy's music and accompanying video. Hungry Lucy spent the last part of 2002 recording their next full length album [a double CD] entitled "Glo". Glo captures all the elements that Hungry Lucy are known for while continuing to explore other genres such as jazz, blues and europop. The album includes a second disc of remixes and reinterpretations of songs from Glo by 10 artists including Claire Voyant, Chandeen, bloodWIRE, Trigger10d, ThouShaltNot and many more. Once again,

Alfa Matrix is releasing a European version with different artwork and remixes.
