Sometimes described as Modern Folk, there are plenty of R&B influences, as in John's cover of the Al Green classic, Take Me to the River, or his awesome rendition of the Spinner's, I'll Be Around; the real innovation comes in his original songs. 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: JOHN CHARLES UNGER puts it all together on this CD. Not his first by any means, this effort combines his own songs and collaborations with his fave cover tunes. He moved to Florida in 2003 after struggling as a musician in Michigan for twenty years. He found a home. First thing he did was have a studio built right on his property and this album came forth from there. "It was so nice to wake up in the Florida sunshine, get my coffee, and go into my own little studio and be creative all day, sometimes for days on end. I am so blessed or lucky or charmed. Whatever you want to call it. I'm sure the vibe shows up on these ten songs." says Unger. JOHN CHARLES UNGER'S track record. 1979 wrote NOW THAT I'VE FOUND YOU for AL HUDSON and ONE WAY on MCA. Founding member of THE SHIVERS on PRIVATE STOCK RECORDS with cover song THIS OLD HEART of MINE. 2001, winner in JOHN LENNON SONGWRITING COMPETITION for song, PICADILLY Member of successful Florida duo, WHEN BUFFETT MEETS SINATRA ARRANGER, PRODUCER, MULTI-INSTRUMENTALIST, STUDIO OWNER, AUTHOR His new book is entitled, A Musician's Story on AUTHORHOUSE PUBLISHING
