Her gift of singing was discovered at the tender age of 2, when her Mother, Autherine Quillian, heard her singing "Thriller" by Michael Jackson in their car. Her Mom then knew KymBerli's true calling would be to sing! At age 8, KymBerli began singing lead in the youth choir at First Church of Christ Deliverance. There, she helped coordinate all of the youth events and activities. When KymBerli turned 13, she joined a 2 year established female hip-hop group named "MixMatch". She was in the group only 6 months and soon became the lead voice. The group performed in many venues throughout Atlanta. Their most successful was the "Sweet Auburn Festival" in 1993. To enhance KymBerli's talents and skills, her Mother enrolled her in the Dekalb Center for the Performing Arts at Avondale Highschool. KymBerli was trained in several Performing Arts areas such as dance, vocal, drama, improv, screenplay writing and directing. And she received her vocal coaching from the world renowned vocal trainer, Robin Brown. During her teen years, KymBerli performed in several showcases in and out of town including "The Ci'nique Artists Development Showcase", "The AllStars Talent Showcase" and "The American Talent Showcase", held in Charlotte, North Carolina. In all shows KymBerli won first place with her powerful Vocals! And KymBerli was the opening act for jazz vocalist, Will Downing in the "New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival". As KymBerli's singing career took a more professional direction, performing at numerous events and arenas, she was asked to sing for many political figures in Atlanta. She has performed for Cathy Cox, Lou Walker, Vernon Jones, Gwen Keyes, and Stephanie Stuckey-Benfield. KymBerli was also featured in the hit motion pictures "Drumline", "The Fighting Temptations", "Dumb and Dumberer" and "The Gospel". Now at age 25, KymBerli is a dedicated wife and Mother who's still pressing forward with her God-given gift. Although she is not signed with a major record label, KymBerli knows who she is as a vocalist and she will continue to deliver outstanding music that will knock your socks off! Her debut album "Spinning" will definitely explain that to all who listen! The lyrics are hot and the beats are amazing! Anyone can enjoy this CD, from the young to the young at heart!
