At age 3, I was removed from my home due to physical and sexual abuse from my father. The Department of Social Services placed 2 of my siblings as well as myself into foster care. At tha age of 7, I was adopted (along with my brother and sister) into a family of 9. From tha start I was labeled as anti-social, uncontrollable, and unpredictable. A child that could go from lovable to pit-bull in a matter of moments. One thing I had to my advantage was my undying willpower to accomplish anything I put my mind to. By the age of ten I was waist deep in crimes that ranged from schoolyard fistfights to burglary. From smoking pot ta burning bullets in bonfires. At age 12, I was arrested for breaking and entering into the elementary school. During the break in my wrist was cut on the window and blood gushed everywhere. After a trip to the emergency room and a visit from the police, I pled guilty in court. From then on my criminal activity and conflicts in the community escalated. Charges of felony menacing, criminal mischeif, criminal trespass, possession of deadly weapons, and theft were cause for out of home placement. I was hospitalized at Bethesda Mental Health and Cleo Wallace, placed in Denver Childrens Home, did time in El Pueblo Boys Ranch, Work Camp, Boot Camp, the Jacob Center in Lake County and Summit County, Summit County Jail, Dade County Jail, Mount View Detention Center, and the Community Responsibility Center. Rage therapy was a major reason for my criminal activity. Rage therapy is basicly legal abuse that resulted in the death of a young girl in Evergreen Colorado. I was forced ta participate in this "therapy" while I resided in the house of my adoptive parents. I knew if I continued to commit crimes, I would eventually be removed from the home and the so-called "therapy". And I'll be honest, I had a gang of fun being a menace to a society that never gave me a chance! Being a ward of the state promised me a college tuition of which I never saw a dime. Even after the thousands of hours I put into school which resulted in scores of up to a 4.0 G.P.A I was denied a chance to receive a high school diploma. Then to top things off I was placed in an adult facility as an experiment, the youngest person to be in the program in 25 years. I successfully completed the program (that has like a 80 failure rate) and still have a clean adult record. Since then I've been building a career in music, opening for KID FROST, N2DEEP, LIGHTER SHADE OF BROWN, MELLOW MAN ACE, CELLY CELL, MAC DRE, RBL POSSE, EMINEM, MC EIGHT, RAPPIN 4-TAY, 2 LIVE CREW, just to name a few. Not bad...huh?
