"for years, people would always ask about when I was going to make an album. It took some time and lots of prayer and support but it finally happened. It is such an honor to get to share my heart in such a way with such talented players. Every song on this record has a story behind it and it is amazing to watch how God is using them now." Along with Hartley, "LEAD ON" features the talented playing of Danny Steis, Neal Giedd, and Jeremy Curtis along with the brilliant photography and artwork by Jennifer Waldorf and Gary Bacon. The album was self-produced by Hartley and engineered by Mark Balltzglier at Heritage Recording Studios in Warner Robins Georgia. Standout tracks include: "Lonely People", "Out Of The Boat", "Get Me There", and the title track. It also includes the powerful worship anthem "All These Things" which will be included on LifeWay's 2006 Centrifuge worship compilation album.
