 BIOGRAPHY Lush vocals, great writing and classic beauty are only part of what Rebecca Kyler Downs brings to the stage. She creates an intimate, late-night supper-club feel in every venue she plays. With her elegant appearance, trademark red satin gloves and rich, throaty voice she brings glamour, sophistication and romance to the stage. "Down's characterizations range from sultry sensuality through perky playfulness, sensitive introspection, little girl innocence, ironic bluesy resignation to good-time raunch and starry eyed nostalgic romance..." FILM MUSIC ON THE WEB As a songwriter she experienced almost instant success. The title song of her debut CD, LOVE ME LIKE CANDY was snapped up by the producers of the TV series Roswell and again, used in the hit movie THE COOLER and selected for the soundtrack CD. BOOGIE WITH THE BAD CATS, another song she wrote for her debut CD, was used in DOWN WITH LOVE. Rebecca has performed all over the world, sung on her own and others' CDs, been featured in VOGUE Magazine and has appeared on national television. She was featured on Steve Reid's (The Rippingtons, Supertramp) smooth jazz favorite "Dreamscapes", which climbed the Billboard Jazz charts last year, and she has not limited herself to music. You'll hear her sexy voice on many a Cd-Rom, commercial and cartoon - hint - she's always the bad guy...  HERE'S WHAT OTHER CRITICS HAVE SAID ABOUT HER WORK AND Her OWN CD...
