A modish rhythm melody from pop rock to blues to fusion. 7 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: A singer and songwriter from India, Sarfraz is catching the ears of many a musicians and critics. Unapologetically unique and melodic, he is treading a path, which few musicians have dared. His debut album 'This Life' brings to listeners a variety of music, from pop rock to blues to fusion. The album opens with a modish rhythm 'This Life' and races to a driving and upbeat 'She Says'. 'Trouble' has ample blues phenomena and was written and recorded in about 3 hours. 'Journey', the haunting fusion melody written by Preston Ruparel, bridges an eclectic gap of western instrumentation and eastern rhythm. Besides Preston on the guitar and bass, Sarfraz's longtime drummer Keith Hobbs appears on 3 tracks, 'This Life', 'She Says' and 'Dark Night'. Guest musician and percussionist Scott Buxton renders the drums on 'Trouble'. 'This Life', the album is in select music stores in Oklahoma and Texas regions including CD Warehouse.
