Thoughtful gentle songs for children and their parents 14 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, FOLK: Gentle Details: Mary Macaroni is a thoughtful catchy collection of songs for kids AND their parents. This gentle collection is served up with an acoustic guitar and a generous helping of vocal harmony. Also featured are the sitar, tablas, mbira, kalimba, and of course the harmonica. A handful of songs on Mary Macaroni have insect themes, like the supercatchy counting song "Ladybug 123" "One, two ladybugs go floating On a yellow breeze Then in the trees A tiny sneeze A ladybug with allergies One plus two equals three" Jam out and sing-along, or start the disc from "Bumblebee Lullabye" (track 9) and use the remainder album as bedtime music for the youngster in your life. Join the growing number of families who are making Mary Macaroni a regular rotation in their familys music collection. Be sure to keep your ears peeled for the Harmonica Pocket's follow up children's album to be released in 2007. This forthcoming album is currently being recorded using solar electricity.
