A magical, rhythmic and inspirational collection of singing, drums, rattles, all percussion that gets you up and moving. 23 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, WORLD: Native American Details: New Age Retailer Bellinghame, WA DESERT SONG Yolanda Martinez Legends Alive Productions Yolanda Martinez is the real deal. An Apache-Mexican American Indian from New Mexico, she grew up working fields, raising siblings, and connecting with animals. Rooted in the traditions of her ancestors and a life close to the earth, she now builds original handmade drums and performs drumming, chanting and music around the United States. DESERT SONG, one of Martinez's many independent albums, is a collection of studio performances, including personal stories and thoughts shared through spoken word. The simple harmonies and indigenous rhythms are just enough to help listeners absorb the potency of Martinez's familial messages. Her powerful voice easily moves from thunderous native song to quiet narratives in English to Spanish lyrics. Listeners are given the sense of a live, up-close performance. More effective as a concentrated con-templation than a background sound, DESERT SONG is well suited for world, American Indian, and Latino music sales.
