Hello, everyone. This is Jeff Dedrick. On today's call, I'm going to keep this fairly focused. For most of the call, we're going to be talking about one topic and that topic is Small Changes, Big Money. What I mean by that is that I'm going to try to lay out in one specific example, a simple step-by-step system where we'll take that simple idea and blow it up into big time sales. Then, of course, depending on your own niche and your own web site, you're going to be able to use parts of it or use all of it. You're going to be able to expand it and you're going to be able to fit it into your system. =====
