Details: Bluesman Tom Malafarina is a blues singer/songwriter from the Reading PA area. His original blues tunes can be heard world wide on both commercial, college, public radio stations as well as internet broadcasts and podcasts. Here are a few comments about Bluesman Tom's music. If I could sing and play like you, I'd be looking at tour buses. - Internet Radio I am very impressed by the intelligence of the compositions, the way you play as well as the performances of the other musicians and the homogeneity of your different groups. Really a marvelous production. It will be on my playlist as soon as possible." - Radio station in France "Even playing the blues, you have your own distinct style and sound. You have the perfect voice. Load up and head to Beale Street. They are waiting for you." - Internet Radio You're doing a great job and you know how to play the Blues. It's a great pleasure to present your music to my listeners. - Radio Station in Germany I really enjoyed the entire CD, and I played it twice on the FM and Cable show in The Netherlands. One of my personal favorites is the second song on the album: "I Got A Ton Of Love For You". It's has the real "blues vibe" to me. The "lazy" sound of the third song: "Come On Over Baby", is just the way is should be. I just fits great! The intro of "I'm a Blues Man" is overwhelming. Radion program from The Netherlands Your CD was immediately placed in it's entirety into rotation and made available for requests. A few of your tunes have been featured in the Sunday evening blues show. Thank you. - Radio station Michigan Your sound is great! - Radio Station, Wyoming What an awesome CD...Your writing is amazing! I hope there's an opportunity for me to see your band soon. Female Blues Fan " I know what I like to hear, and I REALLY liked your music. I myself like the mellow, smooth, and cool style of your songs and music. You did a great job as a writer and singer and I hope to hear more of your music in the near future." - Female Blues Fan PA "This is why I love the blues it's great to have sex to." Female Blues Fan from the UK. "I am impressed that your songs are original and so different. Often times songwriters stick to one formula and everything sounds the same. But so far yours are sounding quite different from one another." - Female Blues Fan PA Your music is great stuff.....I can't wait to hear you in person!!!! Female Blues Fan PA "This sounds like it's sung from the heart." Male Blues Fan PA "You have grown in your music. You may think you don't have attitude; but you are WRONG! When I hear your voice; it gives me shivers....I feel your music in my soul." - Female Blues Fan PA "Tom, you have the capability to reach people and they want to turn around, perk up and think to themselves "WHO'S THIS?" I personally purge my mind of any other thoughts and "hear and feel" what you are singing. " - Female Blues Fan PA . those are the coolest tunes that I've heard. This leaves me pondering this, why aren't you signed to a major label?? Very pro-sounding ... Vocals are on and interesting melody. Get signed or don't, but keep it together. You rock. I really like your approach and style... and I am going to add you to my playlist and check out some more of your stuff. I wish I had more to say or some kind of constructive criticism, but your songs are ready for the air waves. - Internet radio
