The third LP from this electro-acoustic Brooklyn collective shows their signature piano-driven pop at it's most polished and scintillating. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: Featuring an impressive lineup of guest artists, including Soren Anders (Shimmerplanet), Micah Bucey, John Carlin, Jeremy Clayton, Jennifer Houseal, Tim Keiper (Beat the Donkey), Paul Kolecki, and Alden Terry, this third full length LP in as many years from moody Brooklyn electro-acoustic-pop collective Cellardoor is their most ambitious and their most heartfelt. These 10 brand new songs, including fan favourites "Be A Man," "Today My Heart Is Empty," and "I Can't See," produced by front man, drew Edwards, showcases the ever-shifting colours and maturing sound of one of NYC's better-kept secrets. Returning with an eclectic set, and bolder, polished production from the ever-growing rugby road studio, "Distance" moves to the forefront as Cellardoor's next evolutionary step. An excellent introduction to Cellardoor's signature sound, and a welcome addition to the long-time fan's collection, "Distance" is sure to be one of this year's underground sleeper hits. Now available at iTunes, Rhapsody and many other digital music retailers! Free Download of "Be A Man" at rugbyroadstudio.com. Exclusive free download of "Why Are You Still Here?" now at MySpace.com/rugbyroad.
