Porter is an encourager - an agent of success - an engineer of progress - a master of perception: he can see possibilities in others that they do not see in themselves. And, he has the power to help them achieve it - to become "towers of greatness". His brilliant voice lights the sky with gladness. His television show, The Love Campaign, airing since 1986, made its national debut on BET in 2004-2006, The Word Network in 2004, The Guardian Network, CTN Television, cable and on radio nationally and internationally. It can now be seen in selected markets. Bishop Porter often appears on the nationally televised Bobby Jones Gospel, and has shared the stage with such great singers as Albertina Walker, Shirley Caesar, The Mighty Clouds of Joy and the late Cassietta George. He served as panelist for the national broadcast, "Let's Talk Church" filmed in Las Vegas, 2002. He graduated valedictorian from Booker High School, and earned his Bachelor's degree in mathematics from Florida A. and M. University, Tallahassee. As an undergraduate scholar, he actively participated in community and student affairs (President of the Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, the Mathematics Club; and of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity; first student director of the Florida A. and M Gospel Choir, and Student Dean of Academic Affairs (SGA)). At 21, he was awarded a Ford Foundation Doctoral Fellowship. He immediately pursued the Ph.D. in mathematics at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.
