Sad folky Singer/songwriter music with meat on the bones. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk-Rock, COUNTRY: Alt-Country Show all album songs: False Starts Songs Details: False Starts is Jeremy Keen's first full-length solo album, featuring fellow label mates Mike Reeb and Andru Bemis. Mixed and mastered by Chicago's Kris Poulin and Carl Saff, respectively, this album captures Keen's raw emotion using beautiful arrangements and a wide-range of musicians. Jeremy Keen may be best know for playing in Chicago's popular folk-rock outfit, Seventy Two Others with friend Mike Reeb. The duo released a series of records on the Ground Vinyl Records label and performed with the likes of Denison Witmer, Miranda Stone, Tree by Leaf, Michael Heaton, Pete Krebs, Brad Yoder, Madison Greene, Sleeping at Last, and Switchfoot. In addition to Seventy Two Others, Jeremy has been involved with a few other projects including The Verse who released the Love/War 7" in May, 2003. He also performs with the Paul Taneja band and played guitar and sang backup on Paul's 2006 release City Nights. He is also featured singing and playing banjo on Andu Bemis' new record Rail to Reel available on Ground Vinyl Records.
