My life in the Bush of Ghosts goes to Jamaica. With 17 tracks of his inspired "psychedelic dub", Jindo's Flight Risk takes off with an ethereal blend of dubtronic reggae, spaceage synthesizer wizardry and bigbeat boomshots. 17 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Trip Hop, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: jindoradio.com (junkyard funk meets psychedelic dub) Flight Risk by JINDO contains 17 tracks of psychedelic dub and trip-hop. There are percussive guitars, basslines that hit you in the viscera, and always the occasional 'toast' like 'pass me the rizzla'(on "HANDY"); a fat horn section sprinkled in with drums straight from the concrete jungle and jungle gyms... Song Descriptions: Gargantuan 2:32 "Holy Smokes Batman, Jack Kerouac wants to go to the Islands the weekend 1st class! Let's take a ride, a gargantuan ride across the USA and back again. This one will get you there even on a chopper." Bicycle Bwoi 2:52 "Jindo quickens the pace while giving us a taste of the convergence= 1/4 pound of dub-reggae with a dash of uptempo drums= mmm mmm mmm scrumpdelicious." Flight Risk 3:54 "East meets West, no vest and definitely no turtleneck. Ambient piano backs up the title track to Jindo's supreme 'Flight Risk.' With an inscrutable skill Jindo gets the head nod for "dubtronic psychedelia" of the year awards. Submenza 4:04 "You don't know what this guy is saying but it sure sounds good. Once again Jindo slides you some funk bombs under the table, ina militant style; eastern edge. I think this track was produced by the Chinese Mafia. Compromise 3:09 "Where would we be if we all compromised. Nowhere dude, nowhere. A massive spectacle of dub reggae leaves you delirious. This one has a dash of Niyabinghi in there." Humanoid 3:03 "Somewhere between man and machine, the silence and the dub, the light and the darkness, Jindo waits in shady ridims. A fat fat horn section sits on this track as well as on Ancy; if Kraftwerk hit that weed they woulda make music like this." Jinx Palm 3:48 "Wait, had to check my solar plexus- Jindo carves out a deep layering of beats that's big like Texas..."
