Groovy Moroccan Arabic Trip Hop, Dub, Rai'n'B and Dance tracks with noisy guitars and massive Basslines from Bill Laswell. 16 MP3 Songs in this album (76:31) ! Related styles: WORLD: World Fusion, ELECTRONIC: Trip Hop People who are interested in Massive Attack Archive should consider this download. Details: Kasbah Rockers is the new project of Pat Jabbar and different guests from the Barraka label, having combined chilling Trip Hop beats, RainB, Dub and progressive Dance sounds with traditional Moroccan influences and instruments. Bill Laswell who is playing the bass on 11 tracks, grooves along with eclectic artists such as Youssef El Mejjad from Amira Saqati (Marrakech-Morocco), Abdelaziz Lamari and Abdelkader Belkacem from Maghrebika (Oran Skikda-Algeria) or Kadir Erdem from the Swiss-Turkish Hip Hop crew Makale. Their distinctive musical identities, are all fully integrated. For instance to the improvised recording sessions of the bad girls from B-Net Marrakech, or to the great and evocative voice of the young Turkish singer Oezlem Yilmaz. Another new artistic discovery were Hamza Anass, the two brothers from the crew HS, rappin in French and Arabic about Moroccan street reality or moral and social issues. The lyrical content of most of the other songs is much committed to the daily examinations of young Muslims in the western world, or on the other hand, to the confrontation with western values in an Islamic world. Anti Iraq-war song Falludjah Car is sung in Turkish and Arabic, Bledstyle in Turkish only. But also more romantic lyrics as in Shta do aerate the whole atmosphere: I couldnt stand all the suffering, but thanx to Allah I learned to be patient The thunder in the sky brought pleasant rain The rivers are full of water and the flowers are growing Death is asking Allah for mercy Dont let the wolf be our friend I want to be at the top of the the palm tree and be taken by the wind And on the way I am looking for my love They have been taken my love with a white car And rain is falling and the flowers are growing I couldnt stand all the suffering, but thanx to Allah I learned to be patient Bledstyle and Shta by the way, were chosen as a part of the soundtrack for the new Ridley Scott film Body Of Lies (feat. Russel Crowse Leonardo DiCaprio).
