Transitions is an ethno-electronica album that scores three films, created by Yogaaway, dedicated to taking one on a journey through yoga. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes, WORLD: World Fusion Details: Transitions is the music of YogaAway. It is born of the experience of awareness, movement, and breath. While seemingly comprised of individual movements, Transitions is actually one continuous flowing piece, without beginning or end. It has the power to transport you to wherever you want to go-to some place in the past, to a place you've never been, or more deeply into where you are. Transitions is a wonderful melodic compilation, interwoven with luxurious archetypal rhythms, the interplay of shifting sounds, exotic instruments and voices. Martin Case is a performer, composer, and multi-media audio producer who has created numerous scores for dance, television and film, and produced over a dozen full-length recordings. Transitions is a compilation of four unique sound scores composed by Martin for the videos of YogaAway. It offers both the choreographer and yoga practitioner a rich audio landscape to explore.
