Details: Numeralia's second full length CD features a revised line up including the addition of guitarist Mark Harden, Celtic harpist Susan Harwood, and the reintegration of live drums (D Lavon) and bass (Paul Crider). The heart of the band's melodic sound reflects the dream-like ambience of its beginnings, blending Sheena Colbath's angelic vocals with lush instrumentation and emotionally engaging songs. Listeners will find with Spiral, however, that the added energy and organic feel of the new ensemble in addition to a clearer focus on Sheena's vocals brings Numeralia to a new place. The richness of the sound is well balanced between the power of Mark's guitar and Sheena's voice, the groove of Paul's bass and D's drums, and the lovely texture of Susan's harp. A well rounded and diverse CD, Numeralia's newest effort is sure to please dark muses and ethereal angels alike.
