Straight-Ahead and Lite Piano Jazz. Peformed mostly trio style with a somewhat contemporary flair and some great jazz players to boot. Kick back, Light up if it suits you, Relax, and most importantly - ENJOY.

9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Pat Curley started playing piano at the ripe old age of 6. He played in his first organized garage band In the Louisville Kentucky area at 13. He did his first recording session at 15 in Nashville. This led to the opportunity to meet and perform with Artists such as Roy Orbison, Bobby Goldsboro, Skeeter Davis. The Tokens (Lion sleeps tonight fame), Dee Dee Sharp, Roger Miller and others. In more recent years Pat has turned to jazz as his genre and has recorded with well known artists such as Carmine D'Amico, Lee Hopkins and Tony Messina and others. It is evident that his musical influences especially in the jazz area are Bill Evans, Oscar Peterson, McCoy Tynor, David Benoit and Dave Grusin. INSPIRATIONS - Contributing Musicians: Patrick Curley, Piano all tracks. Guitar: Carmine D'Amico, Drums: Tony Messina, Bass: Roland Geeter. Sincere gratitude to my good friend Carmine D'Amico for the superb guitar work on "Waltz For Debby". COMMENTS: Great Piano Playing by: Camine D'Amico, Grammy winnig NY Guitarist": "Pat Curley is the "ULTIMATE PIANIST". There were greats before him, but he is da man, the ultimate in Jazz, R&B, Funk, Country etc. Piano, and my friend. Listen to his music and draw your own conclusions. I had the honor of recording "WALTZ FOR DEBBY" With Pat, .We did it in one take. I just love this man's playing; and he thinks he plays OK???????.....A TRULY HUMBLE DUDE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!" _____
