Well-informed power pop with melodies colored by sweet harmonies 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Power Pop Details: Plum Crazy formed in early 2002. In a short amount of time they have developed a huge repertoire of cover songs, a full album's worth of original music, and played scores of shows in New York, Vermont, and Massachusetts (including Boston, central MA, and an exhaustive list of venues in the Berkshires). They have also sold hundreds of their CDs and developed a loyal following of the best fans any band could ever hope for. Originally conceived as a cover band, original music made its way into the band's repertoire early on. Since then, Plum Crazy now splits its time between bar shows and original set club performances. Plum Crazy has also scored a number of notable honors over the last year. In April of 2002, Plum Crazy beat ten other bands in the semi-finals of the Northern Lights "Battle of the Bands." And, in January of 2003 the band competed in another Northern Lights "Battle of the Bands" finals and placed 2nd out of 70 bands. As a result, the band opened for Eve 6 on their national tour in October 2003 and again in March 2004. The album was officially released on June 12, 2004 at the Iron Horse Music Hall in Northampton, MA.
