A new mantra befitting the style and substance of Saturn. Writing, composing, and producing songs that run the gamut of genres from pop to dance to urban, Saturn infuses his own funky blend of "pop - hop" music with a raw edge and sensuality that is heavily influenced by such icons as Prince and Madonna. THE FUTURE Saturn kicks off 2007 with the release of a limited edition autographed pop/rock E.P. called "Touch the Sky" as well as an ambitious project called "The Junkyard" in which he will digitally release a brand new song every 4 6 weeks. With literally hundreds of songs written, "The Junkyard" will soon be filled with gems. Renowned award winning musician and editor Robert Urban once said of Saturn, "To experience this handsome rising star croon, rap, dance, vogue, charm and effervesce his way through a live concert is to witness perhaps the hardest-working gay man in show biz." After wowing a crowd of 6,000 people as an opener for RuPaul at Baltimore Pride 2005, Saturn is looking to take to the stage again this summer. A scorcher of a video that was too hot and too raw for LOGO, "Art" heated up club and bar TV screens all over the nation. A brand new video is already in the works and will be released in 2007. THE PAST Saturn's 2002 debut album, "The Virgin Poet," received enthusiastic praise for its "highly theatrical" and "emotionally raw" content, but Saturn turned up the heat in 2005 with "Deviant." Baltimore Gay Life said of "Deviant", "...his blunt lyrical seduction is as refreshing as the raw yet refined production of this release [that] oozes with raw sexual energy and rhythms that are dark and hypnotic." Mark Lush of MidwestBands wrote of "Deviant", " It has more artistic merit than 90 of the music you will hear this year..." In both 2003 and 2005, Saturn was featured prominently on the internationally syndicated radio show "This Way Out". WCH Radio called Saturn one of its "top 25 independent artists of 2003". Saturn is currently on rotation on an evergrowing list of stations, including Sirius OUTQ, WCH Radio, Stonewall Society and KPFT 90.1 FM, Houston TX. Saturn's song "Saint" was voted by listeners as one of the top OUT songs of 2005 on Sirius OutQ.
