Like that great band you never heard whose songs you seem to already know, Snacks' second album drops like a gift basket from another dimension into your life. 13 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Ready made equally for the car CD player, the iPod, or the headphones on the couch, United Nations of Snacks is the true album for audiophiles and new song seekers. Snacks makes pop music the way they like it. Head-lodging melodies. Good beats. Tight arrangements. Unique lyrics that would shrivel into atomic nothingness before being cliché. Lots of musical flavors all tied together with spot-on production and studio creativity. Cosmic Forces have drawn you here because you love music and find it hard to find those truly inspired nuggets that feed your musical addiction. Contained here are 13 of them. Equally represented are the sweet, the sour, the dark, the light, the melancholy, the manic, the philosophical, the absurd. * Do you want to ride jauntily down the road of lost dreams and wave and laugh at the ghosts that torment you? Put on track 1, "Yesterdays Are Gone." * Want to hang in the shade with the monkeys and drink lemonade? Bust a move on track 4, "Fade (The Sinister Shade)." * Do you want to dream a dream that whisks you thru the smoke and the dangling rope to your favorite day? Put on to "Saturday," track 5. * Do you want to know why butterflies really despise their lives under the watchful eye and long for the dark days of the caterpillar? Tune into tracks 9&10, the epic "Like to Lie/Butterflies." Snacks has laid out an exquisite selection of sweet song alchemy for you, trimmed all that unnecessary fat, and delivered that flavor you know you want to taste. Who is this mysterious group Snacks? What exactly is the United Nations of Snacks? What's God's real name? Oh my, so many questions. Here's what you need to know: This is the album for you. Luv, Snacks xoxo
