HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Check out what critics have published about this album: "This group's title says it all throwed off... a new fresh flavor and bound to come up and fast... 4.7 (out of 5) its one of the hottest albums for the summer of 2002, defiantly pick this one up, its a nice mixture of everything." - DirtySouthRap.com "...A lot of diversity in the beats and a different feel than stuff out at the moment. Threwed Off has a lot of talent as a group and they all have some very heated/talented flows. Each member of the group brings their own flavor and style to the table which brings a great group full of lots of chemistry. Some of the members have the laid back flow while others bring it the up tempo tongue twisting level... Overall a great new album for 2002 that has a sort of a different vibe than most albums coming out so go scoop it." - 4/5 stars! TRMNDUS (Southwest-connection.com) "There really are no bad songs on this album... both tight lyrics and beats... Overall, this album is worth pickin up if you are sick of the commercial rap and songs with lyrics about cars, jewelry, bling-bling, etc. I was pretty impressed with almost every song on this debut." - 4/5 stars Ultimatecdlink.com "Threwed Off represents Shreveport, LA but they don't sound like your typical group outta Louisiana. They have a sound that combines styles from cities like Memphis and Houston which ends up creating a unique sound. These boys are definitely rearrangin the game...4/5 stars! - 29 of IAP More reviews can be found by following the link to southmaderecords.com BIO: Dallas's own SouthMade Records present Threwed Off, the debut group/album from the fastest growing independent label in the South. Louisiana, the bayou state has seen a great deal of exposure in recent years. With multiple gold and platinum selling records coming from artists such as the Hot Boys, Big Tymers, Master P, and

Juvenile. It is no surprise the next heavy hitters are coming from the Boot. What is a surprise however is the city that they reside in. Enter: Thrown Off. Shreveport's own and Louisiana's finest. Thrown Off consists of Fiyah, Dub Sac, Snakeyez, Mizta Freeze, and Jonni Bo. Five artists that fit no current mold, as alluded to on their first worldwide release "Game Rearranged." Rising from the cold streets of the South, Thrown Off has spent years developing their style of rap. A lightening fast and passionate delivery mixed with lyrics reminiscent of the tough lives they have lived. Also referred to as TOB (Thrown Off Boyz), this group is breaking all of the rules. With the singles Escalades,' Thank You,' and Losin' My Mind currently heating up the airwaves, the future looks bright for this group with humble beginnings. "We just want an opportunity to give back to the friends, family, and fans that have supported us from the start." With the way things are going, it looks like they will have ample opportunity to do so. Shreveport will now be known for something more than casinos. The city will now get the recognition it deserves as a hot spot for talent and even better place to find loyal and "bout it" fans. For Thrown Off and the entire music community in Shreveport, this is only the beginning. Game Rearranged features label mates Jayro Ika Bod and Mr. Do the Damn Thing, as well as R&B sensation Lemo. In addition, Amtrak, Dose, Lil' Mel, and Heat bring some additional fire power that won't let you skip a track. There are many more guest appearances as well as two bonus tracks that contain singles from Jonni Bo's upcoming solo debut "Run the Show" and Jayro Ika Bod's "People Person."
