short stories with cello interludes 11 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: With Music, SPOKEN WORD: Comedy Show all album songs: I Remember You Songs Details: Todd Walton is an oft-published writer and musician, and Marcia Sloane is a renowned cellist and composer. They not only make albums together, they're married. Todd's first novel, Inside Moves, was made into a motion picture directed by Richard Donner from a screenplay by Barry Levinson. He has published many other novels and non-fiction works, and dozens of short stories. Marcia's first CD, Skyward, is a cello tour de force, featuring marvelously lyrical original compositions. Todd has two other spoken word CD's available from CD Baby: Steal My Bicycle and Buddha In A Teacup. Marcia sells Skyward, as well as her cello drone CD (a teaching and practice tool for string musicians) through CD Baby and at her home web site navarrorivermusic.com. Todd's home web site is underthetablebooks.com. I Remember You features five of Todd's funniest and most poignant short stories read by Todd in his inimitably captivating way. Before and after each short story, Marcia plays an original solo cello interlude that reflects the emotional dynamics of the stories. A truly magical combination.
