Tex-Mex, Americana, Roots, with a little Blues thrown in, Sad yet Upbeat, "You haven't lived if you have no regrets." 10 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Country-Rock Details: TOKYO ROSENTHAL A 30 year veteran of performing music, Tokyo Rosenthal is coming off his biggest success with the acclaim his original recording Edmonton has received in Alberta , Canada. The song has been getting steady airplay on radio and Tokyo has been touring the clubs throughout Alberta including the well known Blue Chair where Tokyo has performed on many occasions. This past January, Rosenthal received a certificate of recognition from the city of Edmonton for cultural and artistic contributions and at the same time presented the Mayor of Edmonton with a CD copy of Edmonton in a ceremony at City Hall heavily covered by the media. He will also be playing the Fringe Festival this August in Edmonton as part of his summer tour which also covers Winnipeg, Brandon, Regina and Saskatoon. Rosenthals musical career spans 4 decades that has seen him play all over the US and he has opened for such acts as America, Rick Roberts, Come On In My Kitchen, and Danny DiCarlo among others. He also appeared with Rock and Roll Hall of Famer and founding Byrd Chris Hillman in Toronto this past April 11th and 12th. Tokyo has just relocated to Chapel Hill, North Carolina from New York and has resided in Los Angeles as well as Rhode Island. Barely a week goes by where hes not headlining one of the many clubs in the Raleigh /Durham area. He describes his music as Americana/Roots with some blues thrown in. His performances include original music and interpretations of other writers compositions.. He is presently touring with the master of the electric bass, Alex Little. Material from his new CD, One Score And Ten is available at various sites on line including I tunes and CD Baby as well as retail outlets. For further information log on to tokyorosenthal.com.
