Bob Marley was one of the greatest musicians of our time. While much has been written about him, here is a unique, intimate, and honest portrayal written by his wife Rita, who talks about their struggles both before and during his rise to fame as well as their dreams, fears, and ultimately, her husband's losing battle with cancer while at the height of his career. This stirring honest, no-holds-barred account of life with Bob Marley reveals a different, deeper side of the beloved musician that will be sure to strike a chord with his legions of faithful fans. Rita does his legacy a great favor by humanizing him and his astounding musical gifts. Her writing carries a distinct patois and a directness that makes the book a breezy kind of read.
