Essence is a personal diary, made of words and music, its pages tell thoughts, experiences, dreams, feelings and emotions... small freeze frames of life, real people and imaginary worlds... it's the beginning of a journey, it's the search for hard to find answers, it's the belief that a song can be more than just four minutes of sounds and vocals, that for someone it can become part of their world, that in some way art can be a way of "salvation" it's the wish of not being afraid to expose ourselves, to imagine how it feels when you're wind and you're rain, its the simplicity of having your feet on the ground and your arms in the sky
