Acoustic singer/songwriter brings his characters to life with stunning detail, and sings of the endearing charm of small-town life. Named 4th place for New Folk Album of the Year by Just Plain Folks. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Gentle Details: The new CD from 2003 and 2004 Kerrville New Folk finalist Dave Potts is his most accomplished recording to date. This CD was recently nominated for New Folk Album of the Year by Just Plain Folks, where it won 4th place. The song 'A Day To Remember' was named the winner of the New Folk Song of the Year Contest. In the eight years since Dave began his career, he has released 7 CD's, and performed in over 40 states. His resume includes a Top 12 DIY from Performing Songwriter Magazine, and performances at many of the countries most respected listening rooms, such as the Bluebird Caf in Nashville and Atlanta's Eddie's Attic. 'One Night In The South', produced by Rob Seals of Greensboro, NC, features some of the finest musicians in the Southeast, including Derek Jones (Nickel Creek) on bass, and percussionist Dale Baker (Sixpence None The Richer). Dave's acoustic guitar style and soothing vocals have earned him a loyal following throughout the country. His songwriting, which has won him numerous awards in the past year, shines on this newest collection of 12 songs. From his signature stories of small town life in the South, to songs of faith and love, Dave has earned comparisons to songwriting legends such as James Taylor and David Wilcox. Review from Singer Magazine - Dec. 2003 "Every once in a while, I preview a CD that seems to get stuck in my CD player. By choice, mind you. I just have to lean back and soak it in. Dave Potts' latest CD 'One Night In The South' is one of those discs. Speaking directly to my heart, Potts music mixes life's crossroads with a personal spiritual journey that epitomizes the definition of a true singer/songwriter."
