(UNICORN ARTIST MANAGEMENT/ CMG Records) - CMG Records and Unicorn Artist Management announced today that hot new country artist Dennie Hall will release his new album 'Sweet Addiction' on the CMG Records label. Dennie Hall is a Grove City, Ohio native, born and raised in a farming family, a former concrete construction worker, and a part-time police officer, who started his music career with 'The Hall Family' gospel group. Dennie's shows have been drawing larger and larger crowds over the past year or so, preparing him well for the move to a national audience. As often happens in the music business it was word of mouth that got things done for Dennie. Dale Crocket, owner of a small demo studio near London, Ohio made the phone call that hooked Dennie up with Unicorn Artist Management of Dallas, TX. He told them 'You have got to check this guy out, he is really on the right track' Everyone at Unicorn agreed and soon Dennie signed Unicorn Artist Management to represent him. It took no time at all for the folks in Nashville to notice and Dennie was soon signed by CMG Records Nashville. Dennie's new album "Sweet Addiction" is a killer... Recorded at County Q studio in Nashville and produced by Don Kerce. Dennie's album 'Sweet Addiction' is New Country at its best. Filled with honky-tonk tunes that make you want to move, love songs that make you want to melt, and tear-jerkers that do just that ... If you ain't tappin' your toes you must be dead. Dennie Hall is one guy who knows how to "sell" a song, the feeling is all there and he puts it right in your face. This is one voice you'll want to listen to for hours.
