Christian spritual message with a smooth R&b,and Pop Flavor. 8 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, Jack grew up listening to R&B and gospel. He moved to San Diego, California at age 9. Jack started playing the bass guitar at age 10 and keyboards at age 18, but his greatest strength lies in his singing and songwriting. At age 21, Jack formed the band CLUE and, from there released a solo project featuring the song Shari, which was a smash on the local club scene in the 1980s. In 1988, Jack signed with Splt Image, an independent label based in Los Angeles, where he worked with DJ Quik, AMG and other rap and R&B artists. Prior to his album being completed, . Jack gave his life to the Lord in 1988. He chose preaching and teaching Gods word over music, and in 1994, Jack was ordained as a minister and became assistant pastor at Full Gospel Apostolic under Bishop John Jackson. In 1995, Jack moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, and attended Gods House under Bishop Michael Shelby. It was at Gods House that music starting returning to Jacks life. He began leading songs for the choir and also met Ernest Lee of Ernest J Lee and the Disciples of David. Although they worked on a couple of songs, Jack elected not to pursue music outside his community since he did not feel led by the Spirit to move. From 1999 to 2002, due to trials and tribulations, Jack turned away from God. Through Gods grace, however, and the prayers of others, Jack has a brand new beginning. God has anointed and given him His blessing to share with the world his personal testimony. He now endeavors to encourage and strengthen others who may be going through their own personal trials and tribulations so they, too, can know that God can and will Hold You Up.
