Catch a good spring softball in your old leather glove. Each song rounds out with a heart in the middle and the smell of having travelled last year, this year and on into the next. You can grasp this one and make it your own, maybe even pass it down. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Bio: Jane Kelly Williams, originally from Newnan, Ga. moved to NYC to go to college at The Manhattan School of Music. She has written songs, played guitar and piano since she was 12 years old. Her first 2 albums, recorded for an indie European label, brought several international tours including Japan, Spain, Holland and Belgium. Her next album recorded several years later, for Mercury records, "Tapping the Wheel", met with critical acclaim and her song, "Breaking Into the Past" became a top 10 single on AC radio. Another song, "Show Me How to Catch a Fish", from the same record was featured in the major motion picture, "Picture Perfect". Her follow- up record, "The Patchwork of Lost and Found" is newly released here and on her new website and is sold at gigs. Jane was a recipient of the Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation Grant in the popular songwriting category. She has enjoyed teaching songwriting workshops to adults and children. Jane continues to write, record, perform and make her new town music. Reviews: "one of the brightest lights in the booming alternative folk scene" - Billboard " If the air skimming beneath the wings of a sparrow made noise, it would sound like the voice of Jane Kelly /Williams" - Associated Press " an endearing grace and charm" - Washington Post Contact: new.tune@verizon (new dot tune at verizon dot net)
