Decomposition: Reinventing Minefield is a collection of serious Darkwave/Industrial talent from all points of the globe. The disc features 10 groundbreaking Electronic artists bound together to remix Toronto's favourite goth/ambient act MINEFIELD. 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ELECTRONIC: Experimental Details: If you're a fan of Tamara's voice this album might make you smile. She enlisted the help of 10 groundbreaking artists and created a disc that is pretty stunning. Dancefloor friendly tracks, weird disembodied ambience, flagrant experimentation...what else could anyone ask for? All tracks were taken from Minefield's 2001 ep After The Ball and lovingly massaged into obscurity. Containing mixes by: Dead Poets Society, Synthetic Dream Foundation, Soviet Radio and Minefield, the album in CD form was released in October of 2003. 2 of the 'club' friendly tracks by Karl Mohr and Cryptomnesia have been layed to vinyl and will be released through Interdimensional Industries in January 2004.
