"...lovely Tindersticks-like intensity, moody without being sullen, like a grey Northwest autumn day." - Dana, Three Imaginary Girls - Seattle, WA 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Emo Details: The Isidore Chamber is: Gerald Wu (voice / guitars), Jasun Hadaway (bass), Sebastian Lange (piano / strings), and Benjamin Cory (drums / tambourine). Guest appearances: Jeramy Koepping (Voyager One, Sirhan Duran) plays electric guitar on "Heliotrope". Brett Hamil (The Feral Kid) plays tenor sax on "Marguerite". The cd was recorded and mixed by Jeramy Koepping in Kirkland Washington, in mid-summer 2004. These five songs are woven together by their rich vocal harmonies and resonant force. As the piano and bass intertwine, layers of "bowie-esque" guitars and sonorous drums create mercurial contrasts. Embellished by somber strings and reverbed brass, this cd embraces a twilight mood. "... lovely Tindersticks-like intensity, moody without being sullen, like a grey Northwest autumn day." - Dana, Three Imaginary Girls - Seattle, WA - June 2004 "Another catchy band that mixes together emo with rock for one great taste." - Opus, owner of Coffee Messiah - Seattle, WA - January 2004
