On the Roots, R&B, Pop side of funk. 5 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Funk, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: The Seks are a Brisbane band that are rooted in pocket funk grooves but have the melodic and structural conventions of modern pop songs. Kind of. Their grooves are infectious and melodies memorable with just the right amount of cleverness musically and lyrically to be popularly and musically embraced. On the subject of lyrics, they are predominantly based around the romantic escapades of the lead vocalist Brooksy, with subject matter ranging from lack of luck in love, infatuation and wanting to commit intimacy with female TV personalities. Their bass player, Damian is already a celebrity having starred in the current Vodafone TV advertising campaign. Yes, he is that Bass player. The Seks won the Brisbane Musos Band Competition' where they won $4000 worth of recording time which funded their EP. The members of the band are so individual but combined are a force to be reckoned with. The Seks are undeniably of the highest calibre, which combined with Brooksy's energy and stage presence, amount to a fantastically enjoyable experience. Check out their film clip to Boom Ga Boom on their web site.
