Savannah's Vision By Nicole Austin Book One in the Corralled series. In an effort to escape the difficulties created by her "second sight" abilities, Savannah Thompson runs away to the mountains of western Montana. On the Shooting Star Ranch she finds both peace and a balm for her restless energies. Working with her horses and playing wild games with four handsome cowboys allows her to relax. Yet she continues to dream of a lover who can accept her-quirks and all. Cord Black takes his work seriously. His new job provides a challenge he feels prepared to tackle. By laying down the law, he will whip the lackadaisical cowhands into shape and tame the wild filly who has crawled under his skin, driving him to distraction. At least, that was his plan. Just when all the pieces seem to be coming together for Savannah, she will risk it all to help another. Pitted in a battle against her own nature, she must fight to keep those she loves together. But first, she will have to accept herself before anyone else can.
