Alan Merrill sings the songs of Otis Blackwell and Arthur Alexander. 23 MP3 Songs POP: 60's Pop, ROCK: 60's Rock Details: This is a tribute double album by singer-songwriter Alan Merrill, recorded in the mid 1990s, dedicated to two of his favorite songwriters and influences, Otis Blackwell, and Arthur Alexander. On this album Merrill sings songs made famous by The Rolling Stones, Elvis Presley, The Beatles, Jerry Lee Lewis, Peggy Lee, James Taylor, Otis Redding and many more. Songs written by Blackwell, and Alexander. The vocals on this recording are live with the band, with minimal background vocal and instrumental overdubs. What you hear is for the most part what was performed in the studio. Surprise star guests make cameo appearances, as is traditionally the case with recordings that Merrill releases. This is a fine tribute to two legendary songwriters, by an unpredictable and unique recording artist.
