12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Contemporary Instrumental, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Timbrell finds his 'Timbre' - the UK composer creates New Electronica niche 22-Apr-2007 11:00:30 AM Reviewer: davidjd Graham Timbrell is part of the "wave" of UK east coast Electronica composers, who include pioneering Brian Eno. But, Timbrell, self-taught, never set out to be part of any musical movement. He fell in love with the sound of the synth-and worked long hours to create a distinctive sound in the booming New Age genre. My favorite track in Timbrell's samples is Gentle Waves. It has that Steven Halpern meditative quality. I love relaxing to it...you can almost feel the waves lapping over you. Music with soft atmospherics. Timbrell masterfully works in a wistful 'pan-pipe' effect in the haunting Beautiful Sad Chinese Girl. An admirer of Kitaro, the British composer creates a catchy melodic soundscape in Fantastic World. Graham Timbrell is now achieving the recognition long due to him. Suggest you listen to more work by this gifted composer who combines imagination with a natural musical touch. davidjd Melbourne-based entertainment writer Bright Victoria Australia
