Her deep, rich vocals and insightful lyrics combine with an articulate, rhythmic guitar style to produce a unique, full bodied sound - a seductive musical experience that resonates with audiences long after the performance. Kims charismatic talent captures audiences everywhere she plays, with a voice said to be reminiscent of k.d. lang and a unique guitar style that brings other guitarists to the front row for a closer look. .... So this is what acoustic pop is supposed to sound like. Kims writing is incisive and thought provoking, her guitar playing grooving and rhythmic, and her singing is all at once dead-on and go for broke. Pack a dress and a toothbrush, Kim, you wont be home much once this album gets heard Vance Gilbert, Philo Records pop-rock, bluesy, jazzy kind of music sounds like Dave Matthews, k.d. lang, and Tracy Chapman... there is talent here, lots of it. Muses Muse Whether performing solo with an acoustic guitar, or backed by a band, her music is injected with an energy and spirit that transcends categorization. Kim can easily be considered a crossover performer, appealing to the Adult Contemporary, Triple A, Rock, Pop, and Blues listeners, ranging in age from late teens to late in life. How does she get that sound? One of the most unique aspects about Kims music is her ability to create the depth and range of a piano on her guitar using modified capos and creative tunings. For her audience, this translates into uncommon harmonies, visually engaging performances, and a rich sense of the transaction between performer and listener. Today, Kims performances are about much more than playing the guitar. Theyre about communicating emotion, bringing an idea to life, and sharing it. Audiences can always count on something fresh and powerful. I want to bring the listener into that special place where its just me and my guitar alone in a room, having a new song pour through me. This is the most vulnerable, most wonderful place; it is an elusive place that cant be made to happen - it is allowed. My work is not to perform or act, it is to be that is when there are no bounds, no time, no critics; just flowing creativity, free evolving, ever changing, and not about me. This is the gift of music. People who are interested in k.d. lang Tracy Chapman Dave Matthews should consider this download.
