Details: Mad Malcolm is a one-man team of digital music creation. He's a writer, artist, composer and keyboardist with jazz influences. He has a deep love for the arts, the beats, the funky music, the newest technology and the underground culture that help create enlightenment through shared experiences. Mad Malcolm now produces original music in his home studio just north of Seattle, WA... Samples, loops and soundbeds are the palette through which he works. Mad Malcolm draws from a diverse listening background that includes everything from Duke Ellington to Led Zeppelin, James Brown to Parliament, Tribe Called Quest to Prodigy, Moby to Mozart, and pretty much anything else musical that fits his mood... Mad Malcolm madly purchased loop CD's years ago and now has an extensive library of of loops and samples that span hundreds of gigabytes. These also include many original samples with which he works. Mad Malcolm also records live instruments, vocals, and more... In creative fits that sometimes last until 4am, he blends these random samples into creative expressions, soundscapes and funky beats... And the result of that synergy is Mad Malcolm Productions, Inc. ENERGY. MUSIC. TECHNOLOGY.
