Details: Michael Zampi and Paul Harrison live in gorgeous Annapolis, Maryland where they love writing instrumental sound tracks for commercials, movies and films, while featuring their mastery of guitar styles on the acoustic guitar. Recently Michael was asked to write an hour sound track for a Relaxation DVD about scenic Cape Cod. This DVD has been used in many capacities in the healing sciences profession. In fact, Harvard Medical University is using this DVD and sound track for their "Mind and Body" Healing Program for the terminally ill. Massage Therapists, Yoga Instructors, and Relaxation Therapists rave about finding the perfect music for their profession and clients. The Film also won Best Nature Video in The North East Film Festival. Paul Harrison is a performing singer/songwriter from the Baltimore/Washington/Annapolis area. In addition to sharing his well-crafted lyrics and his blend of contemporary folk, pop, blues, and a hint of jazz with live audiences, his music is also finding some interesting venues. A recent composition was used for a national diversity conference for a large Federal agency. Another song is being used for a touring drama presentation. While primarily a secular writer, his Christian music has been used in church services in Maryland and Pennsylvania. His lyrics have been used in schools from California to Michigan. Paul's sensitive guitar-playing has complimented weddings, anniversaries and receptions. His first CD has been purchased by listeners from Canada to Pennsylvania, Michigan to New York, and throughout the Mid-Atlantic. Paul is a frequent accompanist on guitar with other singers and musicians, both live and on recordings. He has studied songwriting, guitar and voice at Summersongs songwriting camp with stellar instructors like Artie Traum, David Roth, Tom Prasada-Rao, Sloan Wainwright, and others. Paul plays Martin and Larrivee acoustic guitars, a Paul Reed Smith electric, and a Carvin fretless bass guitar. In fact, the commercials were produced by Steven Fischer, Emmy Nominee and three time winner of the prestigious Telly Award. Additionally, Michael's music is being sold at retail gift stores throughout North America, and to our National and State Park gift stores, Spas, Resorts, and Massage/Yoga Clinics around the world. His instrumentals are written for the acoustic guitar and blended with piano, flute, and strings. Michael very much enjoys Classical, Latin, and Folk styles of guitar playing. Check Michael out at zampi-productions.com Together, Michael and Paul have created a gorgeous flowing music CD that is ideal for massage, meditation, romance, relaxation, and the healing arts as well as for reflection, and creativity.
