Bernard Hash is a native of Roanoke, Va. . He is a graduate of Patrick Henry High School. Upon graduation, he enlisted in The United States Marines, and upon completion of Basic Training at San-Diego Recruit Depot, he was stationed at Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station, Kaneohe, Hawaii. There he served his active duty term from 1977-1980. He received an Honorable Discharge and The Good Conduct Medal from The Marine Corps and was promoted to Lance Corporal. After his return to Virginia, he joined The U.S. Army Reserve unit in Salem, Va. (80th Div. Trn. Group) to be with his father, SFC Marvin Hash. There he served from 1981-1996. During his tour of duty with the Army, he was promoted to SFC and became the Dining Facility Manager, and received The Army Achievement Medal (twice) for his outstanding performance of duty. He also received The Army Commendation Medal and many other awards during his time in the military. He accepted the call into the ministry in 1998 under the (late) Bishop George Hash. He is currently under the ministry of Bishop Charles Hash, senior pastor of St. Matthew Word Of Life Fellowship Church in Roanoke, Va.. He is the trumpet player for the praise team and the choir there. Min. Hash is also a distinguished member of The International Society Of Poets and received The Poet Of Merit Award in 2001, for his contributions to poetry. Although he has been in the music business since the age of 6 (six) and sang with a gospel quartet group for 26 years, (The Fantastic Royal-Aires) they all went different directions in their latter years. At this time Min. Hash became a solo artist, and released his first CD, titled "Jesus Is Mine" in which he was nominated for an American Gospel Music Award in 2003. He has now released a second CD, titled "River Of Love", which he calls The Full Meal Deal. He recorded this CD along with his 2 (two) daughters, Cyndle (15) and Fabrae' (10).He is a gifted song writer and poet, and has blessed many lives in the body of Christ. He has also inspired many others to begin writing. His music can be heard on many radio stations across the U.S. and can also be purchased on the web. He is an up and coming super star, with a voice that's sure to be among the greats. May God bless you as sow into his ministry by purchasing this CD. Know that you are sowing into good ground, and your seed is sure to be returned to you a thousand times over. Thank You, and God Bless Min. Bernard Hash &Glory 2
