A collection of cover songs, most of which are in Spanish, taking the listener on a sun tinged latin surf mariachi vacation. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, LATIN: Mariachi Details: In 1924, a festival started in the town of Santa Barbara, Calif. celebrating its historical ties to the past, vision for the future, and because every town needs and deserves a really big party... This affair is called "Fiesta" (Or, "Old Spanish Days", which is slightly ironic yet beautiful architecturally and the city shines with and because of it)... Fiesta continues today featuring girls in Spanish dresses dancing flamenco and makeshift marketplaces or "Mercados" selling Tortas, Tacos and Margaritas. This year, 2006, brought a new addition to the mix with the release of a new Spencer The Gardener cd called, "Fiesta"... The unofficial spirit of fiesta, Spencer the Gardener has been playing this festival for years and has put together a collection of songs showcasing their Tropical Mariachi Tex-Cali-Mex Surf sound. Mostly in Spanish, occasionally English, and sometimes Spanglish. This cd will keep any party rolling and everybody's invited. So grab your friends, jump on your horse and ride on down to the Pacific Ocean... Todos Son Invitados VIVA LA FIESTA
