Tonemah says, "A lot has happened in my life over the past few years, and I have spent a good deal of time praying. When I write songs, I write from where I am and what I am experiencing. This new cd has a lot of songs discussing my relationship with god the creator." Tonemah says, "You have to continuously grow and challenge how you sing, or write. When I was writing this cd, I read an article about a stone sculptor that carved away all parts of the stone that were not what it intended to be. I thought that was so cool. I approached the writing and producing of this music the same way. Any words or sounds that distracted from the narrative of the songs were cut out. That is how I ended up with an acoustic cd".
