Make money at the click of a button! You've heard it one too many times. Sorry to sound gross, but no doubt reading that line made you want to blow chunks all over your computer screen. It's a bunch of bull, right? Well let me tell you this... The information in this report can take you closer than ever to that dream you once had when you started your internet business. Because e-mail marketing is the closest thing to pushbutton income there is. E-mail marketing is at least the 2nd best way to make money online. I imagine the 1st best way is if you had the ability to do telekinesis. If that were the case, you could make money on the internet with your mind without actually doing anything. I'm guessing you're stuck with e-mail marketing. If you can think of anything easier (that works as good or better), please let me know. Why do I say it's as close as it's going to get to a pushbutton business? You press Send. The money comes rolling in. Personally my favorite part of e-mail marketing is: Sending an e-mail out in the morning, going throughout my day, sleeping, then waking up in the morning to find I made $130 from an affiliate product promotion or whatever. Of course there's a little more to it than that. And that's why I've written this report for you. While I'm not going to go into how to write e-mails for your list or anything on that side of the spectrum, I AM going to tell you about 5 out of 8 ways I intensely focus on to build my list. First of all... The goal in e-mail marketing is not to build a big list. It's also not about building a targeted list. It's about building a big, targeted list . As a rule of thumb (results may vary), you SHOULD be able to make $1 per month for every subscriber you have on your list. So if you have a list of 2,000, then you should be able to make $2,000 per month. Then again, you could make way more or way less. Just know that if you're not at least making $2,000/mo off a 2,000 sub list, then you're not doing so great. If this is the case for you, then your problem is probably that you don't have a targeted list or you haven't found a way to market to them that works for you. So read this exclusive report and start building that great cash-churning list for yourself! (Hint - This report comes with giveaway and resell rights.. you can use this to build your list!)
